

Illustration Designer (f/m/x) (full-time or part-time)

Do you love to tell visual stories? Does your heart beat for illustrations and iconography? You would like to be part of an exciting startup that helps people boost their financial fitness? Then join our team!

Monkee (www.monkee.rocks) is an early stage startup in the fintech space. Our financial coach is combining insights from the field of behavioral economics with gamification to help people lead a more financially healthy life. We have our product in the market since 2019 and are seeking to grow our tech team.

What you will do:

- Create extraordinary illustrations that tell visual stories to help people improve their finances
- Conceptualize & develop ideas that turns an abstract topic into easily understandable visual explanations
- Contribute to, and shape the future of our visual language and story telling
- Create visual assets for our product and communications

You will love this job if you ...

- love explaining complex topics in easily understandable, simple, visual ways
- have a passion for crafting exceptional illustrations and animations
- are meticulous with every detail
- like to conquer real challenges, instead of designing yet another meaningless business flyer

What you offer:

You are a team player with a passion for building solutions that help people and create social impact.

- 3+ years of professional work experience in illustration design
- You think of a story from beginning to end with consideration for illustration, motion and animation principles
- You strive for visual clarity, simplicity, consistency, balance, and beauty
- You are a team player, problem solver, and proactive doer
- Bonus: You know the basics of web front-end development

When applying for this role please include a link to a brief portfolio showing a few selected commercial projects you worked on in the past
